2018 HONDA ACCORD LX Vehicle Description

This used 2018 Honda Accord LX sedan combines reliability, efficiency, and modern technology in a sleek silver exterior. With 111,162 miles, this vehicle offers a proven track record of performance, powered by a 1.5-liter turbocharged four-cylinder engine delivering 192 horsepower and 192 lb-ft of torque. The CVT automatic transmission ensures smooth acceleration and optimized fuel economy, achieving up to 30 mpg in the city and 38 mpg on the highway. Designed with practicality in mind, the Accord features a spacious five-passenger cabin, four doors for easy access, and a front-wheel-drive layout that provides confident handling on daily commutes and longer trips alike. This sedan is equipped with advanced safety and convenience features such as adaptive cruise control, a backup camera, Bluetooth connectivity, collision warning, lane keep assist, and push start, making it a well-rounded choice for drivers seeking value and comfort.

The 2018 Honda Accord LX prioritizes safety with dual front knee airbags, traffic sign recognition, four-wheel ABS, anti-lockout power door locks, cornering brake control, auto-locking door locks, and an electronic parking brake with auto off. These features work together to enhance driver confidence and passenger protection. In addition, the vehicle offers entertainment and connectivity options including Pandora internet radio, a 7-inch infotainment screen, electronic messaging assistance with read function, and USB auxiliary audio input. This combination of safety and technology makes the Accord a smart, secure, and enjoyable car for everyday driving, blending practicality with modern amenities.
