2019 HONDA CIVIC SPORT Vehicle Description

Discover the 2019 Honda Civic Sport Hatchback, a stylish and versatile used vehicle that combines performance with modern features. With just 86,368 miles on the odometer, this FWD hatchback offers a sporty look in eye-catching blue, complemented by a 1.5L turbocharged four-cylinder engine producing up to 180 horsepower at 6,000 rpm and 162 lb-ft of torque at 1,700 rpm. Its smooth CVT automatic transmission ensures efficient power delivery, making it ideal for daily commuting and spirited drives alike. The Civic Sport includes advanced safety features such as adaptive cruise control, a backup camera, collision warning, lane keep assist, and fog lights, all designed to enhance your driving confidence and convenience. With seating for five and four doors, this vehicle provides ample space for family or friends, all while delivering an impressive 30 mpg in the city and 36 mpg on the highway.

This used Honda Civic Sport prioritizes safety and security with features like 4-wheel ABS, cornering brake control, auto-locking power door locks, and an electronic parking brake with auto-off functionality. These systems work together to provide reliable stopping power and security, ensuring peace of mind during every trip. The vehicle's modern technology is highlighted by an auxiliary audio input via USB, allowing seamless connection of your favorite devices to enhance your driving experience. Whether you're looking for a dependable daily driver or a sporty hatchback with advanced safety and entertainment features, this 2019 Honda Civic Sport is ready to meet your needs.

2019 HONDA CIVIC Safety and Security Features

The Honda Civic Sport is equipped with essential safety systems including 4-wheel ABS, which ensures effective braking performance in various conditions. Cornering brake control enhances stability during turns, while auto-locking power door locks add convenience and security. An electronic parking brake with auto-off function simplifies parking maneuvers and helps conserve energy, contributing to overall vehicle safety.

2019 HONDA CIVIC Entertainment and Technology Features

The vehicle's entertainment setup includes an auxiliary audio input via USB, providing easy access to your favorite music and podcasts. This feature ensures you stay connected and entertained during your drives, making every trip more enjoyable. Designed for convenience and connectivity, the Honda Civic Sport offers a well-rounded package of safety, performance, and entertainment options that suit a variety of lifestyles.
