2022 FORD BRONCO BASE Vehicle Description

Discover the 2022 Ford Bronco Base SUV, a capable and versatile vehicle ready to take on any adventure. With just over 60,900 miles, this used model offers impressive performance thanks to its 2.7-liter twin-turbo V6 engine delivering 315 horsepower at 5,500 rpm and 410 lb-ft of torque at 3,250 rpm. The sleek Gray exterior pairs seamlessly with the Dark Space Gray and Black Onyx interior, providing a stylish and comfortable cabin for five passengers. Equipped with advanced features such as Apple CarPlay, Bluetooth, satellite radio readiness, a backup camera, push start, and a Wifi hotspot, this Bronco is perfect for both daily commuting and outdoor excursions. Its automatic transmission and all-wheel drive ensure smooth handling and confident traction on various terrains, making it a dependable choice for drivers seeking both utility and connectivity.

This used Ford Bronco maintains a balance of safety, technology, and performance, making it an attractive option for those seeking a reliable SUV. Key safety features include 4-wheel ABS, emergency braking preparation, auto-locking power door locks, and an electronic parking brake that automatically turns off when not in use. The vehicle offers peace of mind with these essential security systems, ensuring safety in various driving conditions. On the entertainment front, the Bronco boasts an 8-inch touch screen with integrated radio, six speakers, USB auxiliary input, and compatibility with FordPass Connect. This allows for seamless app integration, engine start, and cabin preconditioning through compatible smart device apps, enhancing convenience and comfort during every journey.

2022 FORD BRONCO Safety and Security Features

This vehicle is equipped with 4-wheel ABS for reliable stopping power, emergency braking preparation to assist in collision scenarios, auto-locking power door locks for added security, and an electronic parking brake that automatically disengages when necessary, ensuring safe parking and maneuvering.

2022 FORD BRONCO Entertainment and Technology Features

The Bronco features an 8-inch infotainment touchscreen, offering easy access to radio, apps, and vehicle controls. FordPass Connect enables smart device app compatibility, including engine start and cabin preconditioning functions. The sound system includes six speakers and a USB auxiliary input, providing entertainment and connectivity on the go. The vehicle's integrated app marketplace supports connected in-car apps, enhancing the overall driving experience.

2022 FORD BRONCO Performance Features

This SUV features an electronic high-low 4WD selector for tailored off-road or on-road driving modes. Its 4WD system is part-time with an on-demand setting, allowing drivers to switch between two-wheel and four-wheel drive as needed, ensuring optimal traction and performance across different terrains.
