2016 KIA SOUL Vehicle Description

Discover the 2016 KIA SOUL, a versatile used SUV that offers excellent value for drivers seeking practicality and modern features. With a distinctive brown exterior and a sleek black interior, this vehicle combines style with function. Powered by a 1.6-liter four-cylinder engine producing 130 horsepower and 118 lb-ft of torque, it delivers reliable performance on city streets and highways alike. The automatic transmission and front-wheel-drive layout ensure smooth handling and ease of driving. Despite its 218,000 miles, this KIA SOUL remains a dependable choice for daily commuting, offering fuel efficiency with gasoline power and a comfortable seating capacity for five passengers. Equipped with Bluetooth and satellite radio readiness, it keeps you connected and entertained on every journey.

This used KIA SOUL is built to prioritize safety and security, featuring essential modern systems. It includes 4-wheel anti-lock braking system (ABS) to enhance stopping power and maintain control in various driving conditions. Additionally, the vehicle is equipped with auto-locking power door locks, providing added security for all occupants. These features contribute to a safer driving experience, giving peace of mind for daily use and longer trips alike.

2016 KIA SOUL Safety and Security Features

This vehicle comes with essential safety features such as 4-wheel ABS, which helps prevent wheel lockup during emergency braking, improving steering control. It also features auto-locking power door locks that activate automatically, enhancing security and ensuring all doors are securely locked when driving.

2016 KIA SOUL Entertainment and Technology Features

The KIA SOUL includes a sound system with a total of 6 speakers, providing clear audio quality for all passengers. It is also equipped with auxiliary audio input via USB, allowing you to connect your devices easily and enjoy your favorite music on the go. These features make every ride more enjoyable and connected.
